White Elephant Safari Lodge & Bush Camp is the only lodge in South Africa to offer Kariba-like, water-based safari activities as well as the traditional land-based activities.

We are passionate about conservation and offer a superb black rhino tracking experience, as well as fascinating elephant research activities. We also offer the conventional activities such as game drives, educational bush walks and incredible boat cruises on Lake Jozini. These varied activities as well as the chance of catching tiger fish and superb bird-watching possibilities make us a truly unique South African safari experience.

White Elephant Safari Lodge captures the history and romance of a bygone era. There are eight luxurious safari tents, each with a romantic ball-and-claw bath, outdoor canvas shower and private verandah - all of which provide an evocative safari in the Pongola Game Reserve Wilderness.

AN AFRICAN ANTHOLOGY

An African Anthology is a hospitality management and representation company based in South Africa. Our particular area of focus is on game lodges and safari-related experiences, which, through the wide-spread locations of our establishments, we are able to offer in most of the popular safari destinations in Southern Africa. Anthology differs somewhat from most hospitality management companies in as far as our corporate approach is concerned, and simply put, in as much as our guests and clients are seldom alike. Our portfolio of establishments accommodates a wide range of guests' requirements and expectations, and these vary from intimate game lodges to boutique hotels.
